10BEST Says

Outdoor Dining: Provence Marinaside is a go-to restaurant when you're chasing the sun with a hungry belly. Open for breakfast, brunch (weekends), lunch and dinner, Provence Marinaside is there for you any time of the day. Breakfast and brunch has all of your classic favorites, like eggs Benedict, crepes and omelettes. Feeling cheeky? Try one of their mimosas at your next brunch. Lunch and dinner offerings are comprised of French classics, West Coast inspired plates and lovely antipasto options. The patio fills up quickly on those warm days when the sun is out in full force, so get there early. Lucky diners will enjoy the views of the Seawall, expensive yachts and False Creek.

Breakfast: Breakfast with the sunny taste of Southern France is replete with tempting croque monsieurs oozing gruyere, crab and shrimp cake eggs Benedict, fresh fruits, piping hot baked goods in a basket and french toasted baguettes. Each egg dish served up with potatoes and fresh fruit, with the option to switch out potatoes for a mixed green salad. If the steaming coffee and tea is not enough to wake you up, cast your eye out the window where Davie Street meets False Creek for a fabulous view of the seawall and the marina. They're open for brunch on weekends, but they also open at 8am during the week.
