CANADA'S 100BEST SUMMER PATIOS

Canada's Best Summer Patios: Part 2

With the temperature rising and the sun high in a brilliant blue sky, you know it's definitely that time again.

It's patio season: Time to head outside and reconnect with nature. Well... a more civilized version of nature with a full menu and an extensive wine list. Of course, not all patios are created equal. So, the Canada's 100 Best judges have combed the country to find the patios we feel are worthy of your scarce free summer hours.

While these are a collection of our favorites, if you have a patio you think we should know about, tweet us using #CanadasBestPatios!

Provence Marinaside

1177 Marinaside Crescent, Vancouver, BC

(604) 681-4144 provencevancouver.com

A recent renovation has rejuvenated this Southern French Mediterranean restaurant, bringing added sophistication and modern accents. From its vantage point at street level, the patio offers prime views of the marina and the historic beauty of Yaletown. It's a great location to soak up the sights while basking in the aroma of fresh Provençal fare.
