

FOOD

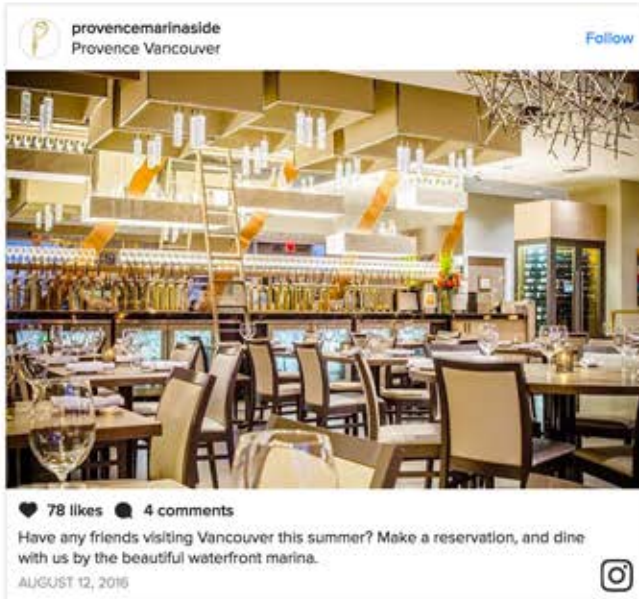

10 Perfect Restaurants for Valentine's Day Dinner in Vancouver

By Brittany Burr

Posted on February 12, 2017

Provence Marinaside

We can't think of a better way to spend Valentine's Day than dining at a beautiful restaurant overlooking the Marina and Granville Island! Provence has an amazingly friendly staff, a stacked menu, and countless wines on tap and by the bottle for you to choose from. We know you will fall in love with this place. The views themselves are enough to have you making your next reservation before you finish dinner.