FEATURED WINERY – QUAILS’ GATE ESTATE VINEYARD

The 160 acres of incredible soil Quails’ Gate calls home sits below the extinct volcano of Mount Boucherie.

Its deposits work like a time-release capsule. Combined with warm summers and mild winters, the volcanic rocks have decomposed and recombined into soluble molecules that are easily separated into their elements and accessible to plants – including vineyards. The result is some of the richest agricultural land on the planet.

The Stewart Family have farmed this unique parcel of land since 1956 and have contributed some of the best farming practises and winemaking in the Okanagan Valley.

Quails’ Gate Clone 220 Chenin Blanc, chenin blanc 17 71
2020 Kelowna, British Columbia, Canada

Single vineyard estate fruit is gently whole-cluster pressed and the free-run juice is separated for fermentation into concrete eggs, with a portion in neutral oak barrels. It is then aged on the lees for 6 months.

Refreshing aromas of lime blossom, green papaya and quince accompany elderflower and slate. A supple bright entry with a crisp citrus palate and medium acidity finishing off with a long mineral-driven finish.

Quails’ Gate Lucy’s Block Rosé, pinot noir/pinot meunier 13 51
2020 Kelowna, British Columbia, Canada

Named after the Stewart Family Matriarch, Lucy Mary Whitworth, this elegant light-bodied dry rosé is a blend of single vineyard Pinot Meunier and Pinot Noir grapes from their Westpoint Vineyard in East Kelowna.

A beautiful pale salmon in colour, this rosé is graceful and full of surprises. Notes of watermelon, cranberry, red summer berries and rose petals on the nose. The palate is juicy and refreshing with cranberry, savoury herbs and red summer berry flavours on the lingering finish.

Quails’ Gate The Boswell Syrah, syrah 28 120
2017 Kelowna, British Columbia, Canada

The Boswell Syrah is named in honour of the Stewart Family Grandparents and is part of their Anniversary Series collection. Each of these wines is crafted to the highest standards in limited quantities, which are only available at the estate.

The 2017 Syrah is a beautifully complex wine that is reminiscent of the Syrah’s grown in the Northern Rhone Valley of France. Dark and inky in color, this smooth full-bodied red has lifted floral aromas of violet and lavender, with ripe black cherry, blueberry and blackberry notes. Hints of liquorice and white pepper typical of the grape mingle beautifully with French oak notes of vanilla and spice to make the wine even more complex. The tannins are soft and supple and the flavours linger tantalizingly in the mouth.
